

BASIC INFORMATIONS

LECTURER	Anna Adorján
TOPIC	Urban planning and design
LECTURE (WEEKLY)	1 x 1 hours (45')	3 credits
CONSULTATION (WEEKLY)	1 x 2 hours (45')
EXAM /TESTS /TASK	0/ 0 / project works

GOAL OF THE SEMESTER:

- to get an overview on the basic concepts of urban planning in the past and the actual trends,
- to become familiar with the urbanism approach as an architect,
- to learn to analyse, understand master plans and formulate individual estimate, proposal,

During the semester students get support for make an individual analysis and plan, based on the lecture. The aim of the works and lectures are to open the students' eyes to their opportunity and potential as an architect to improve through the built environment the city, the ecology, the community.

OUTLINE FOR THE SEMESTER

WEEK	LECTURE	CONSULTATION	TASK
1	Arrival
2	Introduction – Handing out the first project work - Analysis		Students have to carry out an analysis of one conceptual urban model from the 20 th century and evaluate it considering its sustainability and adaptability to the 21st century lifestyle. (3-5 pages written analysis with figures – based on the hand out instruction)
3	Case studies - Site visit	Consultation
4	The city as a changing system	Consultation
5	Urban models from the 20th century and their critics	Consultation
6	21st century, changing word, changing needs	Consultation
7	Mid-semester break
8	Handing in the first project work – Analysis Handing out the second project work – Plan	Consultation	Students should redesign an existing or planned residential or mixed-use block towards a more liveable and sustainable urban environment.
9	Evaluation of the first works	Consultation
10	Introduction of the urban planning method in Hungary and Budapest	Consultation	(1:1000 scale Master plan of the suggested, improved settlement with 2-3 pages written description, additional details)
11	Different scales in urban planning	Consultation
12	Public participation in different urban projects	Consultation
13	International trends in urban planning and design	Consultation
14	Handing in the second project work - Plan

TASK / EXAM

	DESCRIPTION	TO HAND IN	SCORE
I. Analysis	Students have to carry out an analysis of one conceptual urban model from the 20 th century and evaluate it considering its sustainability and adaptability to the 21st century lifestyle	3-5 pages written analysis with figures – based on the hand out instruction	50 points
II. Plan	Students should redesign an existing or planned residential or mixed-use block towards a more liveable and sustainable urban environment.	1:1000 scale Master plan of the suggested, improved settlement with 2-3 pages written description and additional details of the planned area	50 points
TOTAL			100 points

EVALUATION

0-59 points	60-69 points	70--79 points	80--89 points	90--100 points
1 - FAILED	2 - SUFFICIENT	3 - SATISFACTORY	4 - GOOD	5 - EXCELENT